12 HOUR REPORT

A smaller entry for this year's 12 meant that a few familiar faces were missing. Foremost among the absent riders was Shay Giles (right at last year's '12') who was seriously ill in Ireland for some time; now I hear he's on the mend which is very good news. Ted Hill, Roy Manser and Peter Stone have joined the pantheon of ghosts lingering round the event each year. All three have supported the event for many years and how we missed them.

There may not have been so many riders but it was an interesting field. Three juniors tackled the distance, William & Josh came back for another attempt and Meadhbh Cook, at 15, is the youngest girl to have ridden (right). Rupert Robinson from Crawley (bottom right) boasted an impressive hairstyle and knocked out an equally impressive mileage to win the event; Pav Bryan, eager to repeat last year's win was unfortunate to fall heavily at a roundabout in Lydd and Dean Chiddention, also in contention for top honours, stopped to pick him up and sort him out. Dean was rewarded for his kind act by puncturing just along the road. Rebecca Wilson won the ladies award, also taking the Surrey/Sussex VTTA crown and Peter Holley was the best tricyclist.

The people responsible for the success of the event are the timekeepers, marshals, signers and tea lady. Paul Mephram was the chief timekeeper assisted by John Clegg and on the finishing circuit Pat Hill & Jenny Burton; Ernie Mackey & Vic Williams; David Mackey (pictured above are all three at the 2013 event); David Abbott and John Longbottom. Paul Simpson was the pusher-off, marshals came from several clubs within the Association – our compulsory marshalling system has been received with willingness and we started off with James Carpenter (Hastings), moved on to Adrian Hills & Ann Locke (Lewes), Simon Henderson. Andy & Chris Burrows and Jim & Ollie Dickson, Rick Perkins and Paul Kelk (Thanet), Michael Pumphrey & Gordon Davies (Thornton), John Ashdown, Mark Amon, Rod & Ros Harrow and Gordon Sherwood (Rye), Dick Naylor, Mark Doxey, Martin Ford, Roly Crayford & Fred Masters (AbellioSFA), Dave Wright & Alan Francis (Cambrian Whs), Roger Burchett (VTTA), Richard Suthers, Phil Harris, Dick Bradley & Roger Brimstead (San Fairy Ann), Tim Carpenter and Malcolm Daly (Hastings), Chris Nicol & Mike Newman (Ashford) and Martin Yardley and Les & Diane Hayman (Southborough). 7Oaks Tri sent Joanne Stephens Smith, Deb Munden and Stefan Stone, all of whom had competed in a triathlon in the morning. marshalled around the course. Clin Maisey and Mo Jury were at Brookland and Tony & Val Peachey sat at Brenzett. These two roundabouts are pivotal and the checks made at both points are vital for an accurate result. Thanks are due to Clin (right) for taking the paperwork home and collating the result. Only one query this year. Tim & James Carpenter spent a fraught Saturday afternoon putting out signs, including getting caught in the traffic at Camber. Hot sunshine brought the holidaymakers out and the Camber road was eventually closed - thank goodness the Sunday weather forecast was poor and the sun worshippers stayed at home. James collected them all with a little help from me.

Back at the hall Ann Burden served welcoming tea and cakes and Jackie Macnay was once again a popular presence with her massage table.

The galleries at Sugar Loaf and the Kings Head in Woodchurch brought a great atmosphere to the finishing circuit and thanks are due to everyone there but especially to all those club folk who were helping out on the course. Many riders commented, as usual, on the quality of the marshalling.

Ben Hardisty rode for Great Ormonde Street Hospital and thanks the people who donated to his cause helping him to meet his target of £1,000.
